

WHO

The International Confederation of Principals (ICP) is the only global professional network of national school leader associations.

WHAT/ WHY

The International Confederation of Principals (ICP) is dedicated to the development, support and promotion of school leadership globally.

HOW

Theme

We have three current priorities:

1. To encourage more members in the teaching profession to take on the role of School Principal and promote sustainable school leadership.
2. To address major global issues facing School Leaders such as Artificial Intelligence and Climate Education/ Sustainability.
3. To foster the role of student voice in school leadership and on significant issues confronting students and schools leaders.

Methods we will use

Research, using information from ICP.

Collaboration and networking, through face to face and online meetings.

Learning from one another and invited speakers when we meet together.
